POLIDORI SAUSAGE CELEBRATES 85 YEARS IN BUSINESS!

On August 20, 2010 Polidori Sausage will celebrate 85 years in business in Colorado. It has taken 4 generations of one family to develop what was a small neighborhood sausage shop into a well-known, thriving business in Denver.

In 1925, Ana Polidori launched Polidori Sausage when she and her husband Rocco opened Polidori's Grocery and Meat Market in North Denver. It was there that Ana first prepared her family heirloom Italian sausage recipes which she brought with her from Abruzzi, her hometown in Italy. Choice cuts of nicely trimmed pork shoulder and carefully measured seasonings were Ana's secrets.

Today, Polidori Sausage continues Ana's tradition and is operated by Ana's great grandchildren Steve Polidori and Melodie Polidori Harris. The brother sister team have grown the Polidori line to include chorizo, breakfast sausage, bratwurst and meatballs. Each day high quality pork sausages are produced for a variety of uses. Polidori's products continue to be free of MSG, preservatives, filler, gluten, soy, nitrates and artificial coloring.

A sampling of some of Polidori's loyal customers include Coors Field, Invesco Field, Brown Palace, Le Peep, The Original Pancake House, Carmine's On Penn, Garlic Knot, Lil Ricci's, Merle's of Littleton, Snooze, The Olympic Training Center, University of Colorado, The Hornet, Jonesy's, a number of central city and black hawk casino's, The Broadmoor, Epicurean Catering, Pasquini's, Duo, The Convention Center, Deli Zone, Que Bueno, Wazee Supper Club, Udi's and the YMCA just to name a few. Polidori products can also be found at King Soopers and SmartCo stores.
